COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This NEW twenty-four hour class has been developed for professionals working in schools across the United States. Existing and potential problems will be identified with strategies, guidelines, and practical workable solutions discussed. Attendees will have the opportunity to evaluate their campus and create plans to respond to crisis situations. Using a community based approach we will identify and discuss ways of dealing with disruptive students and avoid potentially dangerous situations. Additionally, we will explore ways that school-based law enforcement can assist schools in the creation and maintenance of a safe environment.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Any school administrator, dean of students, campus security officer, probation officer, school resource officer, DARE officer, GREAT officer, teacher, community policing officer, law enforcement supervisor or parent will benefit from attending this course. The curriculum has been developed to allow everyone to gain knowledge and experience from their participation in this program.

CORE TOPICS:

- ✓ Causes and the impact of violence in our schools
- ✓ Identifying the critical issues on your campus
- ✓ Crime prevention strategies and programs in schools
- ✓ Redefining the partnership between education and law enforcement
- ✓ Harassment and Hate Crimes
- ✓ Parent involvement
- ✓ Legal update

ABOUT YOUR INSTRUCTOR:

Dr. James Corbin, the lead instructor for this course, is a retired Orlando, Florida police officer, with fifteen years experience as a school resource officer. He is recognized nationally as an expert in the areas of school violence, school security and school safety. Jim has served as a consultant in the development of SRO programs and school safety initiatives nationally and holds a Ph.D. in Education Administration. Jim has also authored several training manuals that are currently being used to educate law enforcement professionals and educators. Class attendees will continue to receive support, guidance and mentoring from Corbin & Associates, Inc. We believe that by providing this additional support we are “Building Relationships That Last A Lifetime.”
