Course Description:

This forty-hour course has been developed with information gathered over twenty-five of years of experience in School-Based Policing. The curriculum is continually being updated to ensure that attendees receive professional and quality instruction. The concept of school resource officer is best described as a triad: teacher, counselor, and law enforcement officer. This course will concentrate on the triad and teach skills necessary to be successful on any campus. Attendees will be taught specific techniques to ensure success as well as some traps to avoid in the performance of their duties. Completion of this course has proven to be invaluable to existing school-based law enforcement officers and programs. There will be a course examination and at least one graded practical exercise performed by each student.

Who Should Attend?

Any School-Based Law Enforcement Officer, DARE Officer, School Liaison Officer, School Resource Officer, School Peace Officer, Campus Supervisor, Dean of Students, School Administrator, Law Enforcement Supervisor, Program Manager, Teacher, Parent, or anyone interested in the creation of safe schools.

Core Topics:

The History of School Based Policing, School Violence, Counseling and Interview Techniques, Involvement in Student Activities, Classroom Strategies for Officers, Adolescent Stress and Suicide, Intervention Strategies to Deal with Gangs, Crisis Planning and Management, and Legal Aspects of School Based Policing Programs.

About Your Instructor:

Dr. James Corbin, the lead instructor for this course, is a retired police officer with fifteen years experience as a School Resource Officer in Orlando, FL. He is nationally recognized as an expert in the areas of school safety, school security and school violence and holds a Ph.D. in Education Administration. Jim has served as a consultant in the development of SRO programs and school safety initiatives across the United States. He has also authored several training manuals that are used to educate law enforcement professionals and school administrators nationally. All attendees will continue to receive support, guidance and mentoring from Corbin & Associates, Inc. after completion of the class. We believe that by providing this additional support we are "Building Relationships That Last a Lifetime".

Cost, Dates, & Locations:

Cost per class is $395, which includes all materials and certificate of completion. Classes will be held from 8 A.M. until 5 P.M.
